Ballet On Wheels, founded in 2002, is Memphis' only African-American, community based, non-profit, pre-professional, classical ballet school and dance company. The name was derived from its method of mobile instruction. The school and company is dedicated to preserving and celebrating dance while creating and commissioning new innovative works. Males and females ages six and up that are interested in dancing are encouraged to enroll. Ballet On Wheels offers classical ballet, modern and pointe classes.
