BALLET ON WHEELS DANCE COMPANY ANNOUNCES GRAND TEA PARTY EVENT

The Princess and the Frog Coming June 6, 2015

CITY, ST, MAY 15, 2015 - Tea parties. The ultimate event in a child's imagination. Little girls are known to dress up for the occasion and, when left to their own worlds, stuffed animals and dolls come to life. Today, even little boys are known to participate or create their own creatively different tea parties. Ballet On Wheels Dance School announces their summer seasonal event for both little girls and boys - "The Princess and the Frog" Grand Tea Party. This Grand Tea Party Event & Play Date will be held on June 5th, 2015 at 3:00 pm at Heartsong Church, located at 800 N. Houston Levee in Cordova, TN.

Event activities include face paintings, nail paintings, storytelling, specially themed tea treats, tea and much more will be a fun day for all to enjoy. Children are encouraged to come to the party event dressed up as their favorite Princess or Prince.

Tickets are available for purchase directly from the Ballet On Wheels website at www.balletonwheels.org

Ballet On Wheels is a dance school and company with the mission of developing art education and enhancing the appreciation of classical ballet and other dance genres for youth of diverse backgrounds through structured classes, use of creative expression, discipline and performance exposure opportunities.

Tea party events catering to children on a grand scale have become more popular in recent years with entire companies devoted solely to themed tea parties.
