

2085 Monroe Av e ♦ Memphis, TN 38104 ♦ 901-870-4348 ♦ www.balletonwheels.org

Contacts:

Joy Frazier
901-379-3987

joy1frazier@yahoo.com

or

Chaunieece Conner
901-870-4348
chncnr@aol.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 17, 2005

Ballet On Wheels Dances into Its “Genius” Performance

(Memphis, TN) – In its third season, Ballet On Wheels, Theatre of Dance enthusiastically announces their presentation of “Genius,” a dance tribute to three R & B music legends, to take place Saturday, November 5, at 7:30 p.m. at The Buckman Performing and Fine Arts Center.

Embracing the extraordinary contributions of Ray Charles, Aretha Franklin and B.B. King, which were and still are geniuses to the art of music, the show will capture the audience’s attention with the unique and cultivated style of dance. “Genius” will feature 10 performance pieces created in design and concept by Artistic Director, Chaunieece Conner. “I think this performance will engage its audiences with soulful music and diverse dance genres,” said Conner. Ballet On Wheels students and company members ages 6 to 25 make up the dance cast.

(more)

Ballet On Wheels is an innovative, non-profit classical ballet school and dance company. Students receive progressive instruction in form and theory of classical ballet. The company's name is derived from its method of mobile instruction. Ballet On Wheels' main campus is located at Theatre Works, with satellite classes taught at various Memphis City Schools. This event is sponsored by Links Inc, Memphis Chapter, Nike, and The Memphis Arts Council.

For more information on "Genius" or for ticket information, please contact Chauniece Conner at 901-870-4348. or Joy Frazier at 901-379-3987 or For more information about Ballet On Wheels and upcoming shows, please visit www.balletonwheels.org.

###