Ballet On Wheels Dance School Enrolls For Fall 2017 Semester

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (August 28, 2017) – In its 15th year, Ballet On Wheels Dance School is enrolling for its upcoming Fall semester, offering creative and unique dance programs.

The dance school offers classes year-round for students ages 3 and up with classes in creative movement, all levels of ballet, modern dance, pointe class, jazz and hip hop.

“We are extremely excited to see old and new faces at our dance studio for the upcoming season,” said Chauniee Thompson, Executive Artistic Director of Ballet On Wheels Dance School. “We strive to give youth ages 3 & up dance classes that will not only improve their lives physically, but mentally.”

Ballet On Wheels is also offering Boys Hip-Hop dance classes for boys ages 5-10 years old. This highly energetic class is a great way for boys to work on agility, coordination and fitness in a fun, disciplined environment.

“Dance is a creative outlet to escape distractions and stress, which is great for boys in the Memphis area,” said Montrell Britton, Hip Hop Dance Instructor. “Dance changes lives one move at a time.”

The pre-professional dance school is also hosting its Dance Open House Saturday, September 2 from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm at Ballet On Wheels Dance School & Company, located 1015 S. Cooper Street.

“The purpose of our Dance Open House is to give families an opportunity to tour our facility, meet our instructors, register for classes and order dance attire,” said Thompson.

The Fall semester begins September 5, 2017.
