

2085 Monroe Ave ♦ Memphis, TN 38104 ♦ 901-870-4348 ♦ www.balletonwheels.org

Media Contacts: Joy Frazier
901-379-3987
joy1frazier@yahoo.com

Chauniece Conner
901-870-4348
chncnr@aol.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 14, 2006

Treat Yourself to FREE Entertainment, as Ballet On Wheels Dances into Its “Genius” Performance at The University of Memphis

Dance Concert sponsored by the Epsilon Epsilon Chapter Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

(Memphis, TN) – In its third season, Ballet On Wheels, Theatre of Dance enthusiastically announces their presentation of “Genius,” a dance tribute to three R & B music legends, to take place Sunday, April 2nd, at 7:00 p.m. at The University of Memphis’ Rose Theatre. The performance is a part of the Epsilon Epsilon chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated and will serve as an event under the Culture & Arts program component.

Embracing the extraordinary contributions of Ray Charles, Aretha Franklin and B.B. King, all musical geniuses, the show will capture the audience’s attention with classical ballet and modern dance styles behind the backdrop of R & B soulful hits. “Genius” will feature 9 performance pieces created in design by Artistic Director, Chauniece Conner and other guest choreographers. “I think this performance will engage its audiences with soulful music and diverse dance genres performed by young people,” said Conner. Ballet On Wheels dance company members, ages 6 to 25 make up the dance cast.

Ballet On Wheels is an innovative, pre-professional, non-profit classical ballet school and dance company. Students receive progressive instruction in form and theory of classical ballet and related dance genres.

For more information on “Genius”, please contact Chauniece Conner at 901-870-4348 or Joy Frazier at 901-379-3987. For more information about Ballet On Wheels and upcoming shows and programs, please visit www.balletonwheels.org.

###